

Impact Update for Tuesday, March 31

As our community continues to navigate through the many challenges being faced at this time, we will be sharing regular updates and resources through twice-weekly email newsletters. We encourage you to share this information with any friends, individuals, families, and small business owners who may be able to take advantage of the resources and programming options listed below.

Jason Siegel
President & CEO
Greater Orlando Sports Commission

Local Resources.

- The City of Orlando, Orange County and Osceola County Orange County remain under a "Stay At Home Executive Order" through April 9, 2020. Check your city/county page for the most up to date information:

- City of Orlando
- Orange County
- Osceola County
- Lake County
- Seminole County
- The results are in from the Orlando Economic Partnership's first COVID-19 Business Impact Survey, the first in a series designed to reveal the challenges our business community is facing in response to the uncertain economic environment. The data gathered is open to public viewing, and OEP's Business Resource Center is continuously updated with the most current information.
- A drive-thru, community based testing site is open at the Orange County Convention Center. Testing is currently available only for individuals who are 65 years of age or older who have COVID-19 symptoms, and first responders and healthcare workers. View this PDF for more information. Click here to view the screening and testing site directions and map.
- The virtual job fair from OrlandoJobs.com is still going through April 3, 2020, with more than 40 employers participating. Job seekers can find more information about this free event on Facebook.

Stay Engaged.

- The Orlando Health National Training Center is offering free Facebook Live classes every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 11 am EST. Tune in for a variety of workouts to keep you engaged and active! Classes are also available to view on the OH-NTC Facebook page after the broadcast is over.
- Orlando City Youth Soccer is providing a virtual soccer training program that runs through April 15th in the TopYa! Soccer app.
- Imagineering in a Box from Khan Academy is designed to pull back the curtain to show you how artists, designers and engineers work together to create theme parks. Go behind the scenes with Disney Imagineers and complete project-based exercises to design a theme park of your very own.
- NASA's Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex is another source of free online content. Educators share daily Facebook live videos that pair with hands-on activities (instructions are available as free downloads) using materials that can be found at home. Topics include rocketry 101, tours of Space Shuttle Atlantis and the Astronaut Training Experience and living in space and on Mars.
- Join Orlando Regional History Center's chief curator Pam Schwartz for an introduction to basic genealogical research and what it takes to develop good research skills. The webinar is free and will take place on Wednesday, April 1 from 3pm-4pm EST.
